Recipients of EagleMed Scholarship Announced

EagleMed is pleased to announce this year's recipients of the EagleMed 4 Memorial Scholarship. The scholarship, in existence since 2004, was developed in memoriam of Jonathan Dye, Jennifer Hauptman and Brandon Bow. The purpose of the EagleMed scholarship is to assist aspiring nurses and paramedics with their education through the awarding of two $1000 annual scholarships.

The 2010 recipient of the EagleMed 4 Memorial Scholarship for nursing studies is Brad Broyles. Brad is a paramedic who resides in Eureka, Kansas. He is currently in the MICT-to-RN program working towards obtaining his nursing degree this year.

The 2010 recipient of the EagleMed 4 Memorial Scholarship for paramedic studies is Jolene Davis. Jolene is a member of the U.S. Armed Forces. She has emergency care experience and is currently residing in Derby, Kansas. Jolene is currently enrolled in the MICT program at Cowley College to complete her emergency care education.

Applications for the 2011 awarding of the EagleMed 4 Memorial Scholarship will be accepted starting September 15th, 2010.
